Homecoming of Antioch High School Successful Despite Football Loss

Parade and Dance, Good; Crowning of Queen Attractive

The Antioch High School homecoming was quite successful, even though the football game did not end as the students or alumni wished.

The parade was a good one and there were many nice floats. The Future Farmers of America won first prize on its float "Indian Summer," while the Girls Athletic association and the Pep club tied for second money. The Methodist Youth Fellowship received honorable mention.

The crowning of the queen Pat Hogan during the intermission of the dance Friday night was an outstanding event. George Swenson was the queen's escort in the line of march. Her attendants were Sue Norman, Ann McMillen, Joan Cervenka and Carmen Edmundson.

Mark Berge was the freshman attendant's escort, James Osmond, sophomore escort; Bob Lubkeman, junior; and Bernard Haviland, senior.

Captain Bernard Gutkowski of the varsity squad crowned Miss Hogan and Tom Elwood, representing the Sophomore-Freshman squad presented her a bouquet of roses.

Music was furnished by Art Smejkal's orchestra both for the march and for dancing.

Marguerite Stitt Church Candidate for Congress Wins Respect at Tea

Mrs. Marguerite Stitt Church, Republican candidate for congress, won her way into the respect of the 50 women who heard her talk at the tea given in her honor at the Scout Home Tuesday afternoon.

She told them that America's freedom must be preserved, and that it must be protected from Communism that is worming its way into the high places of the U. S. federal government.

She cited the many failures of the present administration and promised to give her utmost efforts to weed out un-American forces and to guard against a creeping socialism that calls for dictatorship enforcement.

Mrs. Church was introduced by Mrs. W. W. Warriner. She was unaccompanied here, saying she preferred to drive alone so that she can listen to commentators on public affairs over the radio. She has a rigorous speaking schedule for the next week. Despite the many demands on her time for speaking, she is bearing up well under the strain and never fails to captivate her audiences by her charm and graciousness.

Those who poured at the tea were Mrs. J. Ernest Brook and Mrs. Dan Boyer.

The tea was given by Republican women of Lake Villa and Antioch townships.

Kenosha H. S. Dist. Approved by Many, Is View of Town Board

Denying that a large part of the voters of the new Union Free High school district of Kenosha county are dissatisfied with the setup, a letter to the News from a member of the new school board this week said in part, that the persons who have been opposing the new district are misinformed.

Answering the claim that the people of the district were maneuvered into the district, the letter stated: "No one was maneuvered into the district. . . . In a sincere attempt to find out the wishes of the people in regard to forming a new district this committee held a public hearing on Aug. 11 at the Bristol Community hall. Anyone was allowed to attend to voice their opinion. After that meeting it was the opinion of the committee that most of the people there wanted this district formed. The committee then wrote an order creating this district. To make sure they had acted in the best interest of the majority of the people, they ordered a referendum. This referendum gave every qualified voter in the district a chance to go to his local polling place to vote yes or no on the question of forming the new Kenosha County High School district. The result of that ballot was 935 to 319 in favor of forming the district. It was

Mayor McMillen Asks Sensible Observance of Halloween This Season

Mayor James McMillen asked for a sensible celebration of Halloween this year with the elimination of damage to property and danger to lives.

He wished for the youngsters a good time and expressed his interest in the parade and show that the Antioch News and Antioch theatre are planning for the grade school children as a proper way to celebrate the holiday.

Mayor McMillen said that as has been the custom there will be an extra police force on duty at all times day and night over the weekend and through Tuesday.

Wesley Reeves Car Stolen By Thieves Who Abandoned Chicago Automobile Here

Car thieves who abandoned an auto with a flat tire here are credited with the theft of the car of Wesley Reeves, Jr., from its parking place near the Reeves Body shop on Depot st. at noon yesterday.

Two boys who were seen in the vicinity of the Reeves car and who earlier tried to borrow a jack at the Chevrolet garage to fix a car with a flat tire are believed to be the ones who stole the Reeves 1941 Chevrolet.

The car abandoned here was taken in Chicago.

There wasn't much gasoline in the Reeves car and it probably will be found not far away. The thieves were believed to be headed north into Wisconsin which makes the theft a federal offense.

A social hour will follow.

Fun Galore Promised For Masqueraders at Antioch and Lake Villa

Party for School Children Arranged for Tuesday Evening

Halloween entertainment for Antioch school children and children of Lake Villa township is planned in separate events for Tuesday evening.

The Antioch children from kindergarten through eighth grade are to mask and assemble at their respective rooms in school at 6 p. m. Tuesday.

They will parade, starting at 6:15 o'clock from the school down Main st. to the Antioch theatre where they will be guests of the proprietor Fred Swanson and the Antioch News.

Three prizes for boys and three for girls in each grade will be given for the best costumes. There will be a grand prize for a boy and a girl. Mesdames Edith Elms, Marion Rigby and Joseph Horton will be judges.

Motion pictures will then be shown.

There will be an intermission at 9 o'clock so that parents can take the younger children home at that time.

Halloween at Lake Villa

The Lake Villa Community Men's club will give a party for the children of Lake Villa township at the grade school gymnasium starting at 8 p. m. Tuesday, according to Jerre Hagen, president.

William Walker is chairman of the party committee which comprises John Eder, John Henning, and Edwin Langbein.

Prizes will be given for the best costumes. There will be games, favors, and refreshments.

Skating Party, Too

The Wahoo Rollers will give a skating party from 7:30 to 11 Tuesday evening at the Sequoia rink in Antioch. Skaters will come in costume and prizes will be awarded. There will be an admission fee of 60 cents.

Antioch Loses to Grant 38 to 0 at Homecoming; Plays Ela Friday Night

The Antioch High school and Notre Dame football squads won't count this season any too successful.

Both have met with defeats, but Antioch's defeat Saturday at the hands of Grant High was perhaps a little worse to bear because it was Homecoming Day and worse yet, the score was decisive, 38 to 0.

Not in a long time have the Fox Lake boys been able to give the Sequoia such a drubbing, and it was sweet revenge for the many lickings Antioch gave them.

"They had a fine group of backs and those Grant ends had a way of tipping and catching passes that was marvelous," commented Coach Maurice Kruzan.

Antioch continued to suffer from line trouble, and while they made some good plays, others showed a lack of experience which should disappear as time progresses. The Grant Bulldogs may be in a similar position next year with so many graduating.

Most of Grant's scoring was through the air. Two touchdowns were made in the first quarter and one in the second, making the score 18 to 0 at the half. The Bulldogs scored again in the third quarter and two more in the fourth quarter. Only in this quarter were the goals kicked.

Antioch will be host to Ela here tomorrow evening. While the Lake Zurich boys have won no games yet this season, they haven't been playing bad ball, and the game should be a hard fought one.

The Sequoia will be without the services of George Nelson, a half-back who received an arm injury in Saturday's game. He is the fifth backfield man lost to the team this year and Coach Maurice Kruzan will have difficulty in finding a replacement.

The underclassmen lost to Grant lowerclassmen at Fox Lake Tuesday evening, 80 to 0. It was a repetition of the varsity game.

LIST OF DONORS TO SCOUT HOME

The following list of donors is in response to the annual drive for funds to maintain the Scout home: L. C. Scott, A. J. McGreal, Carl Reisser, Ed Knickelbein, Earl Gibbs, C. J. Heinzelman, T. J. Masek, L. A. Biel, Hazel Britton, Dr. and Mrs. D. N. Deering.

New Lighting System Under Construction in Business Part of Town

A crew of electricians is at work this week installing the new street light system for the business section, and it is expected that the work will be completed by November 1 as promised.

Four of the poles with the equipment already have been put up and the rest of the 10 poles will be put in place rapidly. Much time was consumed in providing holes in the sidewalk for anchoring the tall poles. Wires from pole to pole will be overhead to cut down the cost.

It is expected that before the end of many months the old wooden poles now used by the village for its light fixtures and by the Illinois Bell Telephone Co. for its cables will be removed.

The telephone company already has its new cables under ground and all that remains is for the new wiring from the cables to the business places to make possible the removal of the overhead cables.

The Lions club which fostered and is paying much of the cost of the improvement along with the business men and village has considered a celebration for the opening night in the use of the new lights but cold weather may prevent.

The lights are of the mercury-vapor type such as now is used in front of the Bud Holtz tavern. They will be suspended higher and will not be blinding.

High School Teachers To Observe Visiting Day on Friday Nov. 3

Friday, Nov. 3, will be Visitation Day for the teachers of the Antioch Township High school and no school will be held on that day, Principal Richard Edmundson announced.

School science and industrial arts teachers will visit the high school at Hinsdale, Ill., which benefits from the Illinois secondary education program under the office of the state superintendent of public instruction.

English teachers will go to the Schurz High school at Chicago, and the Science and physical education teachers will visit the Steinmetz High school in that city.

The Mathematics teachers will go to Racine and the business education teacher to Waukegan.

P. S.—The students are aware that Nov. 3 is the opening of the duck hunting season so there is but one guess where they will be going.

Sleepiness Blamed for Car Crash on Main St. Late Monday Afternoon

George Manz, a Chicago motorist, told sheriff's deputies that the cause of his accident in which he crossed the lane and crashed into two parked cars in downtown Main st. in Antioch Monday afternoon was the fact that he fell asleep at the wheel.

How he could go to sleep in as lively a village as Antioch is hard to believe, but that was his story when picked up and charged with reckless driving.

His car struck the parked cars of Lucy T. Beard, Bristol, Wis., and John E. Nicoloff, Libertyville in front of the Williams department store. All three cars were damaged but no one was hurt.

United Nations Day Observed in Assembly At Antioch Highschool

An assembly program at the Antioch Township high school Tuesday afternoon gave recognition to United Nations Day.

The program was a project of the social studies group under the direction of Mrs. Jeanette Tulumello, assisted by the Music department.

The school's public address system played bell chimes from 2 to 2:05. The program included a band number, opening prayer by the Rev. Roberts Ehrigott, introductions by Principal Richard Edmundson, talks "The Crusade for Freedom" by Delores Corbin, "The Freedom Bell" by Ronald Sully and the song "Battle Cry of Freedom" by David Deering, Charles Bock, Bernard Cosgrove, and Ronald Arndt, with introductions by Miss Corbin.

A symposium under the title of "The Call of Freedom Through the United Nations" was conducted by Ronald Scully, and provided the following discussions: "The UN as an Organization," Charlene Nelson; "Communist Aggression," Jack Pregenger; "Korea—Why the UN Acts," Doris Frozeth; "Problems Confronting the UN," Bill Clarke.

The program was brought to a close with the singing of the Battle Hymn of the Republic by the boys, the reading of the pledge of the scroll sent to Germany, the UN pledge of the individual, and the pledge of allegiance to the United States flag. The Rev. G. Richard Tuttle pronounced the benediction.

There was no display of the UN flag.

Course in Modeling Given As Prize for Republican Queen at Ball Nov. 7

A course in modeling and charm development heads a list of prizes to be awarded to the girl selected as the Lake county Young Republican Campaign Queen on Saturday, Nov. 4.

Selection of the queen will be the highlight of the Young GOP campaign ball to be held at the Rink ballroom, Belvidere street at Jackson street, Waukegan.

The modeling course has been donated by Miss Elaine Morley, director of the Elaine Morley Modeling and Charm school, Waukegan.

Miss Morley is a graduate of the Patricia Stevens and Jo Keith Modeling schools and models professionally in Chicago and Waukegan. She will also serve as one of the judges for the queen contest.

The contest is open to anyone in Lake county and the entrance requirements are simple.

A photograph and brief biographical sketch mailed to Campaign Queen Contest, P. O. Box 341, Waukegan is all that is necessary to enter the contest.

Selection of a queen will be based on charm, poise and beauty.

Music for dancing will be provided by Johnny Rappis and his orchestra, currently appearing at the Aragon Ballroom, Chicago.

All county candidates will be invited to attend the dance and serve as honorary queen judges, but there will be no political speeches.

Meeting on Election Night

Whether the village board will meet at its regular time next month is not yet known, Mayor McMillen said. The meeting falls on election night and while he is willing to meet on that night he doesn't know whether the trustees are.

Postoffice Site Changed to Lake And Victoria Sts.

New Building to House It and Three Other New Stores April 1

A change in new location for the Antioch postoffice calls for a new building at Lake and Victoria streets, Roy Kufalk, postmaster, announced today.

A contract with Joseph F. Moulis of Riverside, Ill., provides for occupancy of a brick building 24 x 58 feet interior dimension not later than April 1, 1951.

The rental contract signed by Walter Myers, assistant postmaster general, stipulates that the rear of the building shall have a loading platform with canopy, and a 30 x 40 feet trucking area with an exit to the east on Victoria street.

The property recently used by Carl Anderson as a used car lot, was purchased by Moulis from C. F. Spiering about six weeks ago.

Charles Cernak, Jr., local real estate man, who aided in the transaction, said the postoffice building will be but one of four rooms of a larger building Moulis will construct for business purposes. Two of the rooms will be smaller than that to be occupied by the postoffice and another will be about the same size. He may construct additional building space later. What businesses will occupy the other rooms is not announced.

Construction to start Nov. 1. Moulis is now receiving bids on the construction work and expects to award the contract in a few days. He wants to start building Nov. 1.

The change to the Lake street location came after it was announced that the postoffice would be moved to the building formerly occupied by the township library on Main street. The Main street room was said to be not so well suited because of the slope of the lot and the necessity of a loading chute in the rear.

Moulis has a summer residence on Fox lake and has been coming to this community for many years. He is well known in Antioch and Lake Villa which is his mailing address during summer. He has other real estate at Cicero and Riverside.

More recently Mr. Anderson has been connected with the Chaplaincy of the armed forces where his work was to classify and demonstrate visual aids in the classroom as well as to assist in teaching a remedial reading course.

RAILROADS AND RESEARCH

A short time ago a new million-dollar research laboratory was opened in Chicago, on the campus of the Illinois Institute of Technology. It was built by the Association of American Railroads, an organization which represents practically all of the leading lines of the country. Its purpose is to advance the science of railroading in every possible way. Everything from new engineering developments to the quality and practicality of shipping containers will be tested. In every case the goal will be the same—to enable the railroads to better their service to the shippers and passengers who use them.

The laboratory is new, but the railroads' intense interest in research is not. Ever since the days of wooden rails railroad men have been working to improve their product, which is the transportation of people and goods. And the over-all results are found in the magnificent railroad plant of today.

In the words of Clifton Forge, Virginia, Review, "Railroads are far from just a string of cars on a track. They are an ever-changing human organization, aggressively keeping step with a developing nation." Every major event that has occurred in this nation—whether it be the opening of the West or the prosecution of a great war, has depended in large part on the railroads for success.

New carriers have come into being. But none of them can do a modicum of the work that is performed by the iron horse. The railroads carry the load.

"YOUR PROGRESS AND OIL PROGRESS"

Between October 15 and 21, Oil Progress Week was observed this year. The theme of the week was "Your Progress and Oil Progress Go Hand in Hand." That is not just a felicitous phrase. It is a statement of fact.

Oil has revolutionized agriculture and industry, and the daily life of the people. With the automobile, it put this nation on wheels. It was a decisive "weapon" in bringing victory in two great wars. It performs a thousand vital services.

The week is particularly timely now. It finds the oil industry in its highest state of development. Since the war alone, oil companies have ploughed about $8,000,000,000 into expansion, and modernization of property, plant and equipment. Its producing and refining capacity has been greatly increased. And the result is that oil men are convinced that they can meet any conceivable future demand.

There is another phase to the week which is worth emphasizing. Oil is typically American industry in that it is intensely competitive. To take a single example, there are 400 refining companies. Competition between them forces continuous improvements in gasoline quality as each refiner tries to get the jump on his business rivals. So it goes, in every phase of the enterprise. And the consumer gets the benefits of high quality at a reasonable price.

During the week, local oil men all over the country described the contribution their industry has made to national defense and to the comfort and well-being of 150,000,000 Americans. It was a story well worth hearing.

THE LOW DOWN FROM HICKORY GROVE

You know, folks, if up to now you been thinking that you could leave it to Uncle Harry and his boys to lick inflation, you been dozing in the wrong pew. Instead of slowing down higher prices by pouring on water, they been using kerosene.

An old Texas Longhorn tells it pretty good when he says it is "just another crack-pot idea of the Queer Deal." This Texas gent is editor Lon Boynton of Paris—he runs the Lamar County Echo—he says no wonder we pay more with the Govt. hoarding butter, and eggs, and potatoes, etc. That is what the man says. Sounds pretty much like horse-sense, too.

Also, it is not just tying up dinero in powdered eggs and spoiling potatoes, the Govt. also ladies big dinero into other un-sound numerous frills and foolishments, like building unneeded powerhouses on dozens and dozens of cricks and rivers and then building alongside same, steam operated machines. Also, the housing venture needs millions, as does scheme on scheme. The Govt. pay-roll zooms. Free wigs for bald pates and slimming garments for the plumper gals, like we hear going on in socialist England, could be next—here.

We have until November 7th to oil up the old musket. Some tail feathers should fly then—or our goose is cooked.

Yours with the low down,

JO SERRA.

SHORT STORY

Sane
And Sensible

By Richard Hill Wilkinson

GAIL WATCHED TOMMY Berkley and Rita Young disappear down the moon-flooded path toward the beach. His arm was about her waist and Rita's red head was very close to Tommy's blond locks. Tears blinded Gail's vision. "That's what you get," she thought bitterly, "for being sane and sensible all your life. For being virtuous and loyal." Loyal! The word provoked a laugh. Loyal to what? To Tommy Berkley? That was ridiculous. You couldn't be loyal to a man who didn't know what you were up to. Or at least it lost its effect.

Gail turned and started back toward the lodge. Two months ago she had come up here with her folks for the summer. The day after their arrival she had met Tommy Berkley. They had danced and Tommy had looked down at her and said: "You're not pretty or beautiful, you're glorious, which is really a weak word to express what I mean."

Gail had known then why all her life she had been sane and sensible. It had been for Tommy.

At the point where the path skirted the tennis courts before coming to the lodge steps, Gail saw a figure and stopped, catching her breath.

"Hi there, Gail. I saw you walking down this way and followed."

Even without the help of moonlight to etch out the features of the man Gail recognized the voice. It was Clark Davis. Davis was tall and good looking and dark. He was considered wild. He had a reputation. Mothers warned their daughters not to go out with him, though they didn't say why.

"Clark!" she forced a laugh. "You frightened me at first!" "Sorry," he came close. "I guess I've been frightening you ever since you came up here. I wish I didn't."

A path of molten gold streamed across the lake. Tentatively, Clark Davis slipped an arm around her waist. And when she offered no objection he stopped and swung her to face him. "Gail!" he cried hoarsely. "Gail!" And he took her into his arms. She yielded, gave him her lips in a long kiss. When it was over she broke away, suddenly, unaccountably, regretful, guilty, ashamed.

"Don't! Please! I—I think we'd better go back."

But Clark Davis didn't understand. He couldn't understand. He seized her wrist and jerked her up close to him. "Listen," he said tensely. "I love you! Don't you hear! I want you—have wanted you since the first day you arrived here. And you want me!"

"No. No. Clark! You don't understand. I was a fool to come here with you. Please let me go."

QUICK FOOTSTEPS sounded along the pebbles. A figure loomed out of the gloom. Davis

Clark's feet went out from under him. He fell groaning.

felt a heavy hand on his shoulder. He swung around, saw Tommy Berkley. Angriily he swore and struck out. But Tommy sidestepped the blow and drove home a hard fist, catching Davis behind the ear, to the jaw.

Clark's feet went out from under him. He fell groaning. "You dirty dog!" Tommy said, coldly brutal. "You ought to be hung." Then he turned to Gail, where she had sunk to her knees. He helped her up.

They walked along the beach. Tommy's arm supported her. They stopped at the foot of the path. "The dirty dog," Tommy said. "Why can't a man like Davis accept the fact that there are some good girls left? Why does he have to think they're all alike?" "Oh, Tommy!" She smiled, dabbing at her eyes. "It—it's all right now. I—I was foolish to have come here with him. If you hadn't come along—"

He grinned. "Lucky thing for both of us. Rita and I were sitting on the big rock beyond the point. When we heard you cry out we thought there was trouble and she went back to the lodge by the road. I came over to investigate. I'm glad I found you, because now you'll be the first to know of Rita's and my engagement."

Marine Emblems
American and British marines wear somewhat similar insignia. The U. S. marine emblem shows a globe, eagle and anchor, while the British wear a globe encircled by a laurel wreath, together with a small anchor, a lion and a crown.

Early Skier
One of the earliest skiers on record in the United States was a Norwegian-born postman known as "Snowshoe Thompson." In 1850, he set up a winter ski route between northern California and Carson Valley, Nevada, along which he delivered the mail for the next 20 years.

Finishes Beautifully Rubber
Rubber goods are made more attractive by the use of special finishes. Beach toys, for example, are printed in brightly colored patterns while rainboots, balls and numerous other rubber articles receive a special finish that brightens the surface.

Life Insurance
Life insurance funds invested in U. S. business and industry represent $287 per policyholder at work in this type of financing.

Meat Waste
Meat waste due to the bruising of animals resulted in a $25,000,000 loss in the nation's livestock industry in 1949.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Zarnstorff, Sr., spent Sunday evening with Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Schaaf, Powers Lake.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Brown, Zion, were Sunday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Brown.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Kamin, Silver Lake, Mr. and Mrs. Dean Ehler and son, Kenosha, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Russell Ehler, Oak Knoll.

Mr. and Mrs. John Ehler accompanied Mr. and Mrs. Fred Bauman and family, Ringwood, to Chicago Sunday to visit Mr. and Mrs. Joe Stoeffell and Mr. and Mrs. Tony Senkerik.

Wilmot high school Panthers sent a gay homecoming crowd away jubilant Friday evening after a 28-0 win over Walworth. Coach Frank Bucci had his boys sky high for this one and they unleashed a touchdown in every quarter while smothering all offensive efforts.

Dick Scott traveled around the end for a 35 yard jaunt in registering Wilmot in the first quarter.

In the second frame, quarterback Earl Hennessey sneaked over for a 2 yard TD. This time Francis Miller converted with his kick.

Seven more tallies went up on the board in the third quarter. Hennessey rifled a bullseye aerial to Dan Survillas that covered 20 yards for a touchdown. Miller's boot was again accurate.

Norm Epping, fullback, rammed his way for 3 yards and the final six points in the last quarter. Miller missed the kick.

In the matter of first downs, Wilmot rolled up 13 to 6 for Walworth. Bucci had praise for all his players but he singled out Captain Dick Brehm for special honors because of the steady defensive class and leadership ability he showed.

After the game, the homecoming dance was held in the school gymnasium. Panthers with the names and numbers of the players on them lined the dance floor. Red footballs which read "Hello, Alumni, Welcome" were above the stage. Red and white streamers hung from the ceiling.

Bob Meredith, guard was king. Carole Gale, his queen, wore a wine corduroy dress and a corsage of chrysanthemums and was crowned by Miss Lewis, Spanish and English teacher of Wilmot High.

Wilmot now awaits next Friday afternoon's 2:30 kickoff at Union Grove where a homecoming celebration will have the second place Grovers hopped up.

Local Eastern Star Co-hostess at Show In Millburn Temple

The Antioch and Millburn Eastern Star chapters were hostesses Friday evening when the Lake County Star players presented "Memories of Stephen Foster." Edward Jacobson, worthy patron, Mayflower chapter, O. E. S., directed the show in Millburn Masonic hall. A free will offering was taken for the benefit of the cancer control fund.

Les Nordhausen, worthy patron of Sorosis chapter Grayslake, was in charge of settings and scenery. Arnold Thieman, worthy patron of Palatine chapter, was in charge of the men's costumes; Gunnard Erickson, worthy patron of Easter chapter, North Chicago, furnished hoops for the dresses of the southern belles, and Ralph Jacobs, past patron of Waukegan chapter, and a member of the cancer control committee, played the piano accompaniment for the singers.

Members of the cast included Phoebe Bowers, grand lecturer, soloist, singing "Beautiful Dreamer," and "My Old Kentucky Home." Jeanne was portrayed by Lucille Nordhausen, worthy matron of Sorosis chapter, and sung by Edward Jacobson, Alma Jacobson, worthy matron, Mayflower chapter, Waukegan chapter, featured a pickaninny clog dance and Eric Anderson, past patron, Millburn chapter, acted as "Old Black Joe," and also sang the number.

The entire company, Edith Elms, Antioch; Adelaide Thieman, Palatine; Elizabeth Gyzen, Millburn; Eva Palmer, Sorosis; Esther Shellberg, Waukegan; Irene Erickson, Easter; Gunnard Erickson, Easter; Arnold Thieman, Palatine; Reginald Palmer, Sorosis; Ida Jacobs, Waukegan; Elmer Shellburg, Waukegan; Arnold Thieman, Les Nordhausen, Mrs. Alice Erickson, Waukegan, sang "Swanee River," "Oh Susannah," and "Massa's in De Cold, Cold Ground."

The group also presented the play a week ago Saturday during friends night at Waukegan.

MEMBERSHIP SUNDAY TO BE OBSERVED BY METHODIST CHURCH

The climax of the Evangelism mission of the Methodist church in Antioch will be observed Sunday morning at 11 o'clock when Membership Sunday will be celebrated. New members will join the church during the special service. These members were visited by teams during the Preaching Mission which was led by the Rev. Kermit Long of Trinity Methodist church, Chicago.

At the service on Sunday morning the Rev. G. Richard Tuttle will speak on the subject, "We Believe in the Church." The robed choir under the direction Charles B. Watson will sing the anthem "Onward Christian Soldiers." A nursery for small children led by Mrs. Richard Ripley is available each Sunday morning for parents desiring to attend the worship service.

Plans were under way this week to set up permanent visitation teams in the local church to carry on the work of visitation which was begun during the mission. These teams would compose a group which would meet regularly for discussion, instruction, and visitation.

A dark red velvet dossal was dedicated at the Methodist church this past Sunday morning in memory of Mr. Ben Burke who was for many years a trustee and active member of the local church. The dossal, which hangs behind the pulpit, was given by the friends of Mr. Burke. On the dossal there hangs a myrtlewood cross which came from the Pacific coast. Myrtlewood is a rare wood which grows naturally in only two places in the world—in the Holy Land area of the Mediterranean and along a strip of the Oregon coast.

NICK KONTOS AND PAULINE ARAVOSES EXCHANGE VOWS

On Sunday evening, October 23 at the Church of Assumption in Chicago was solemnized the marriage of Nick Kontos and Pauline Aravoses. The bride was attired in white silk and wore an orchid corsage. They were attended by the niece and nephew of the bride.

A dinner for 100 guests was served at the Greek Village following the wedding.

Mr. and Mrs. Kontos left for Phoenix, Arizona, for a ten-day trip after which they will reside in Antioch, where Mr. Kontos is a partner in the Antioch Restaurant.

MRS. PFLAGER TO SPEAK AT A TEA

The Woman's Auxiliary of St. Ignatius church will hold a tea at the home of Mrs. John Weiss on Oct. 31 at 2 o'clock. Mrs. Charles Pflager will speak on her "Mediterranean Cruise."

Everyone is cordially invited to attend. The Weiss residence is one mile west of Antioch on route 173.

Masonic Lodge Honors Seventeen Past Masters At Dinner and Program

Seventeen past masters were present in receiving recognition at the annual banquet given in their honor by the Antioch Masonic lodge Tuesday evening.

One hundred persons, many of them out of town guests, were present at the dinner served at the temple at 6:30 o'clock. The Order of Rainbow for Girls did the serving.

After the banquet the members and guests went to the lodge room where an informal meeting was held of the 23 past masters, four were unable to be present on account of illness and two have transferred their membership elsewhere.

Ira Simons, only living charter member of the lodge which was instituted 57 years ago, Oct. 4, was introduced. Each of the 17 past masters was introduced and presented a tie clasp.

The introductions included Chas. Schwarm of Waukegan, deputy grand master.

Motion pictures were shown by a representative of the U. S. signal corps. One reel showed the retaking of the Philippines, and the other depicted Communist propaganda.

A. M. Vanderkloot is master of the lodge and had charge of the meeting, assisted by Wendell Nelson, senior warden. Harold Nelson, junior warden, had charge of the banquet.

November 28 will be family night for the lodge and at that time pictures of the Korean war will be shown by the Signal Corps.

CUB PACK 91 MEETS
ON TUESDAYS

Antioch Cub Pack 91 will meet hereafter on Tuesday afternoons beginning at 4:00, in the Scout home.

The Pack is now being registered for the next year, with registration provided by the Pack, together with a free subscription to "Boy's Life."

Boys 8, 9, and 10 years of age are cordially invited to join.

Den meetings will until further notice be held in the Scout home on Tuesdays. Den mothers are being recruited for this work; volunteers are welcome. The regular third Friday Pack meetings will be held instead of the third Tuesday.

Men interested in helping with the administration of the Pack are urged to contact the Cubmaster at 652-J. Three more men are needed on the Pack committee before the charter can be renewed. If you want to keep Cubbing in Antioch, please help.

Scout Troop 91 now meets each Tuesday evening at 7:30 in the Legion home. The troop is in the process of re-organizing, and the boys are being put through an intensive program of test-passing. A hike to Little Silver lake was held last Saturday; an overnighter is planned for the near future.

This Sunday, Oct. 29, the Church of St. Ignatius of Antioch will conduct its annual Every Member Canvass to determine its budget for 1951.

The drive this year is under the chairmanship of George Bartlett, and material and pledge cards have been mailed to all parishioners and friends, asking that they be returned by mail, phone, or brought to church this coming Sunday.

St. Ignatius' hopes, from the results of this month's canvass, to be able to incorporate in December as a parish church.

almost a 3 to 1 majority. It is hard to imagine a more fair and democratic way of proceeding."

As to getting out of the district, the letter, in part, reads:

"The law provides a method of withdrawing from the district if certain conditions are met. A petition for withdrawal may be presented to the town board. If all the town boards in the district affected agree to let the territory withdraw it may legally do so. So far two petitions have been submitted and acted upon by the town boards. In the case of the Paris petition two of the five town boards voted against allowing the withdrawal. The vote on the Wheatland petition was three of the five town boards voted against the withdrawal. These petitions may now be appealed to the State Superintendent of Schools. He may grant the withdrawal if he sees fit after weighing all the evidence."

"In reference to the 10 mill tax vote mentioned in the article. This tax provides $25,000 for the building committee so it can hire an architect, make land surveys, make sample borings of the land and take care of any other preliminary building expense. The remaining $75,000 was raised by the people to build up a fund to begin operation of the new school and establish a bank balance. If this had not been done the tax payers of this district would have to pay an excessive tax next year to compensate for paying no high school tax this year."

"The statement circulated that district taxes would go to $35 per $1,000 of assessed valuation if a school was built is not true. An honest look at the problem will show this. A liberal estimate of the cost of operating a school of this size is about $55,000 per year. That would create a tax rate of $5.50 for every $1,000 assessed valuation."

"The state law allows a district to borrow no more than 5 per cent of its assessed valuation for building purposes. If this district borrowed its maximum amount the law allows it would be approximately $492,000. The annual repayment rate on this principal and interest would average $3 per $1,000 on assessed valuation. Therefore, if we combine the tax rate for operation of the building ($3.00) the total cost would be about $8.50 for each $1,000 assessed valuation or about $5.00 per $1,000 equalized valuation. This is a far cry from the $35 per $1,000 as mentioned in the previous articles."

"The tax payers in the district are now paying about $8.30 per $1,000 of assessed valuation to educate their children on a tuition basis in schools outside the district."

"It is interesting to note that the district could build and operate its own high school for little or no more than it now spends on tuition."

Parents of Daughter
Mr. and Mrs. Frank Lux are the parents of a son, "Clancy Michael," born Oct. 20 at St. Therese hospital, Waukegan.

Deafness Cause

Deafness can be caused by a blow on the ear, loud explosions or continuous loud noises. A survey, made in New York state recently, revealed that 75 per cent of all workers in a printing plant were deafened and 65 per cent of the women workers in a tin can factory had hearing loss. Fumes may also cause hearing trouble.

Use of Matches

In all, the average American strikes about 14 matches a day, but spends only about six cents for his monthly supply. On an annual basis the country uses more than 500 billion wood and paper matches, or well over a billion per day.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE CHURCHES

The subject of the Lesson-Sermon in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday, October 29, will be: EVERLASTING PUNISHMENT

The Golden Text is:

"The way of the Lord is strength to the upright; but destruction shall be to the workers of iniquity" (Prov. 10:29).

Among the citations which comprised the Lesson-Sermon, the following are from the Bible:

"This I say, then, Walk in the Spirit, and ye shall not fulfil the lust of the flesh. For the flesh lusteth against the Spirit, and the Spirit against the flesh: and these are contrary the one to the other: so that ye cannot do the things that ye would . . . Be not deceived, God is not mocked: for whatsoever a man soweth, that shall he also reap" (Gal. 5:16, 17; Gal. 6:7).

The Lesson-Sermon includes the following passages from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy:

"The way to escape the misery of sin is to cease sinning. There is no other way . . . Do you ask wisdom to be merciful and not to punish sin? Then 'ye ask amiss.' Without punishment, sin would multiply . . . Divine Science reveals the necessity of sufficient suffering, either before or after death, to quench the love of sin . . . The good man finally can overcome his fear of sin. This is sin's necessity,—to destroy itself. Immortal man demonstrates the government of God, good, in which is no power to sin" (pp. 327, 10, 36, 405).

Prince Hoards Jewels Worth 20 Million

DARBHANGA RAJ, India—There is one man in the world who could cover himself with jewels and have enough left to deck out several other persons, if he was so inclined. In fact, his jewels are estimated to be worth $20,000,000.

He is the Maharajah of Darbhanga, one of the few remaining Indian princes who has more money than he knows what to do with. His brother nobles, many of whom now owe him money, lost their jewel hoards, palaces, fleets of motor cars and other properties when the government of India took over recently.

The Maharajah, however, had no state and he was not affected. His jewels, his lands, his cars and his palaces are his own, and while the government would like to whittle him down, as a member of the parliament he is able to look after his interests.

Owns Famous Necklace

The impending abolition of absentee landlordism in India will take something away from him as he is the biggest of all, but he figures to keep upwards of 20,000 acres that are not tenant-farmed. Anyway, it said that if he lost every inch of his land holdings and never earned another rupee from his many other enterprises, his present accumulated fortune would support his family and his 22,000 employees for four generations.

His treasure of jewels includes the famous Marie Antoinette necklace, purchased at auction for 60,000 pounds, from which he removed the largest diamond because it had a black spot.

He also owns the world's largest emerald, which was purchased by his father from a fugitive Nepalese prince for $180,000 but is thought to be worth four times that today.

Among his means of transport in addition to solid silver carriages, Rolls Royces and a private railway car are nine airplanes.

His palaces contain astonishing gewgaws collected by succeeding generations with varying kinds of taste. In one room, where thrones with frameworks made of enormous ivory tusks are flanked by four huge stuffed tigers, the walls are lined with distorting mirrors, like a Coney Island "fun house."

Carriage of Silver

One of the bedrooms contains two four-poster bedsteads of solid ivory, carved in delicate filigree. There are ivory tables mounted on rhinoceros feet, and thrones of solid silver cushioned with gold-worked red plush.

In the stables, the visitor is shown a carriage fifteen feet high, meant to be pulled by four elephants. Except the wooden wheels, this vehicle is solid silver, trimmed in pure gold. There are three slightly smaller silver carriages, designed to be horse-drawn.

The Darbhanga dynasty lost its state because of its attitude toward the British. Considering the British something like untouchables, one Maharajah forced the British representative to stand well away from him and downwind so that his person would not pollute the breeze. After a little of this treatment the British took over the state, which drastic punishment turned out to be the economic salvation of the present Maharajah. Had he been still ruling, the government of India would have taken over his wealth.

Anything Can Get Into Woman's Hair These Days

ROME, Italy—The International College of Hairdressers had their annual convention in Rome recently and proved, if nothing else, anything can get in a woman's hair these days.

They put on a demonstration of evening hair styles with 20 models which used everything from dye to daisies. About the only things that were not popular were long hair and dark brunets.

Almost everything that came to hand went into the masterpieces. There was hair with egret feathers; hair with lace; hair with orchids. Artificial butterflies were used and feathers and metallic leaves.

In almost every case the hair was either dressed with jewels or sparkling with tiny brilliants.

The hairdressers from seven countries seemed unanimous on the short hair style—with ears right out in the open—and on their preference for blond, red haired and silver gray models.

More and More People Order Video for Bedroom

CHICAGO—More and more people are watching television in bed, so says a large furniture company. As a result the sale of mattresses, pillows, and bed springs are booming. The announcement was made at the summer home-furnishings market held in Chicago.

L. Gerald Kock said, "Television is exercising an influence on the bedroom, just like it has in the living room."

Designers are showing more and more convertible bedroom equipment to meet the demand for a parlor atmosphere in the bedroom.

Paratrooper Sets Record With 107 Drops in One Day

FAYETTEVILLE, N. C. — A former paratrooper from Dillon, Mont., has set a world's record for parachute leaps in a single day by making 107 drops.

Averaging better than one jump every 6 minutes and exhausting seven pilots, Sgt. John W. Swetich, broke the record with his 108th jump 10 hours to the minute after his first leap.

He successfully topped the official record of 75 leaps by a Yugoslav in London and the unofficial record of 105 leaps claimed by Juan Triarte of Buenos Aires.

He made his leaps into a plowed field. He wore a sweat shirt and regulation paratrooper trousers, boots, and helmet. He taped his arms where the chute straps bound him.

After each jump, a jeep and a pickup truck met him. The jeep rushed him back to the Piper Cub plane which took him aloft again, while the truck took his chutes to the hangar where six men were kept busy repacking them.

His only complaint at the start was, "If I can survive those jeep rides, I'll be O. K."

Swetich twisted his ankle and sprained his knee on the 51st jump, and slowed down long enough to have his right leg taped. After the 99th jump his aides, all buddies from the 82nd Airborne Division, decided he should jump from 900 feet instead of 700 because his reactions were slower. From 900 feet he would have time to use his emergency parachute if necessary.

He took only two 5-minute breaks throughout the grind, and ate only a milk shake with three eggs in it and a few candy bars.

110-Year-Old Maryland Woman Registers to Vote

BALTIMORE, Md. — A registrar at the office of the board of supervisors of elections was so startled he had to ask the lady her age a second time.

"One hundred ten," answered Mrs. Annie Ross without batting an eye.

She went on to explain she was born in slavery on Maryland's east shore during the term of President Van Buren. This was the first time she had registered to vote because "nobody influenced me before."

She said she owed her good health to "a little gin now and then."

Nephew of King Sells Estate to Pay Taxes

LEEDS, England — Nobility throughout the world has been having a tough time of it for a number of years, for the most part finding themselves without people to rule.

In England, however, it is a little different. English nobility is finding it difficult to pay taxes. The latest example is the Earl of Harewood, nephew of King George, who has been forced to sell a third of his ancestral estates at auction to pay inheritance taxes.

Most of the happy buyers were his old tenants—farmers and tradespeople. A total of 7,000 of his 22,000 acres were sold to pay the taxes, amounting to approximately $2,196,480.

The Earl told his tenants he would like to have them bid in the homes and fields they had rented.

Mrs. Annie Mary Ridsale, 83, bought the cottage she had lived in 40 years. When it was knocked down to her for $588, she said, "I am so happy I could walk home the 10 miles to Leeds."

The post office, with 6½ acres, went for $7,420 and the shoemaker bought his shop for $168.

One tenant paid $33,880 for two farms his family had worked on for around 300 years.

Single farms brought as much as $23,100 for 175 acres and a house. Two others were withdrawn from sale because bids were too low. A King George III period stone house dating from American Revolutionary times brought $5,880.

Old-Fashioned Coal Oil Aviation Fuel of Future

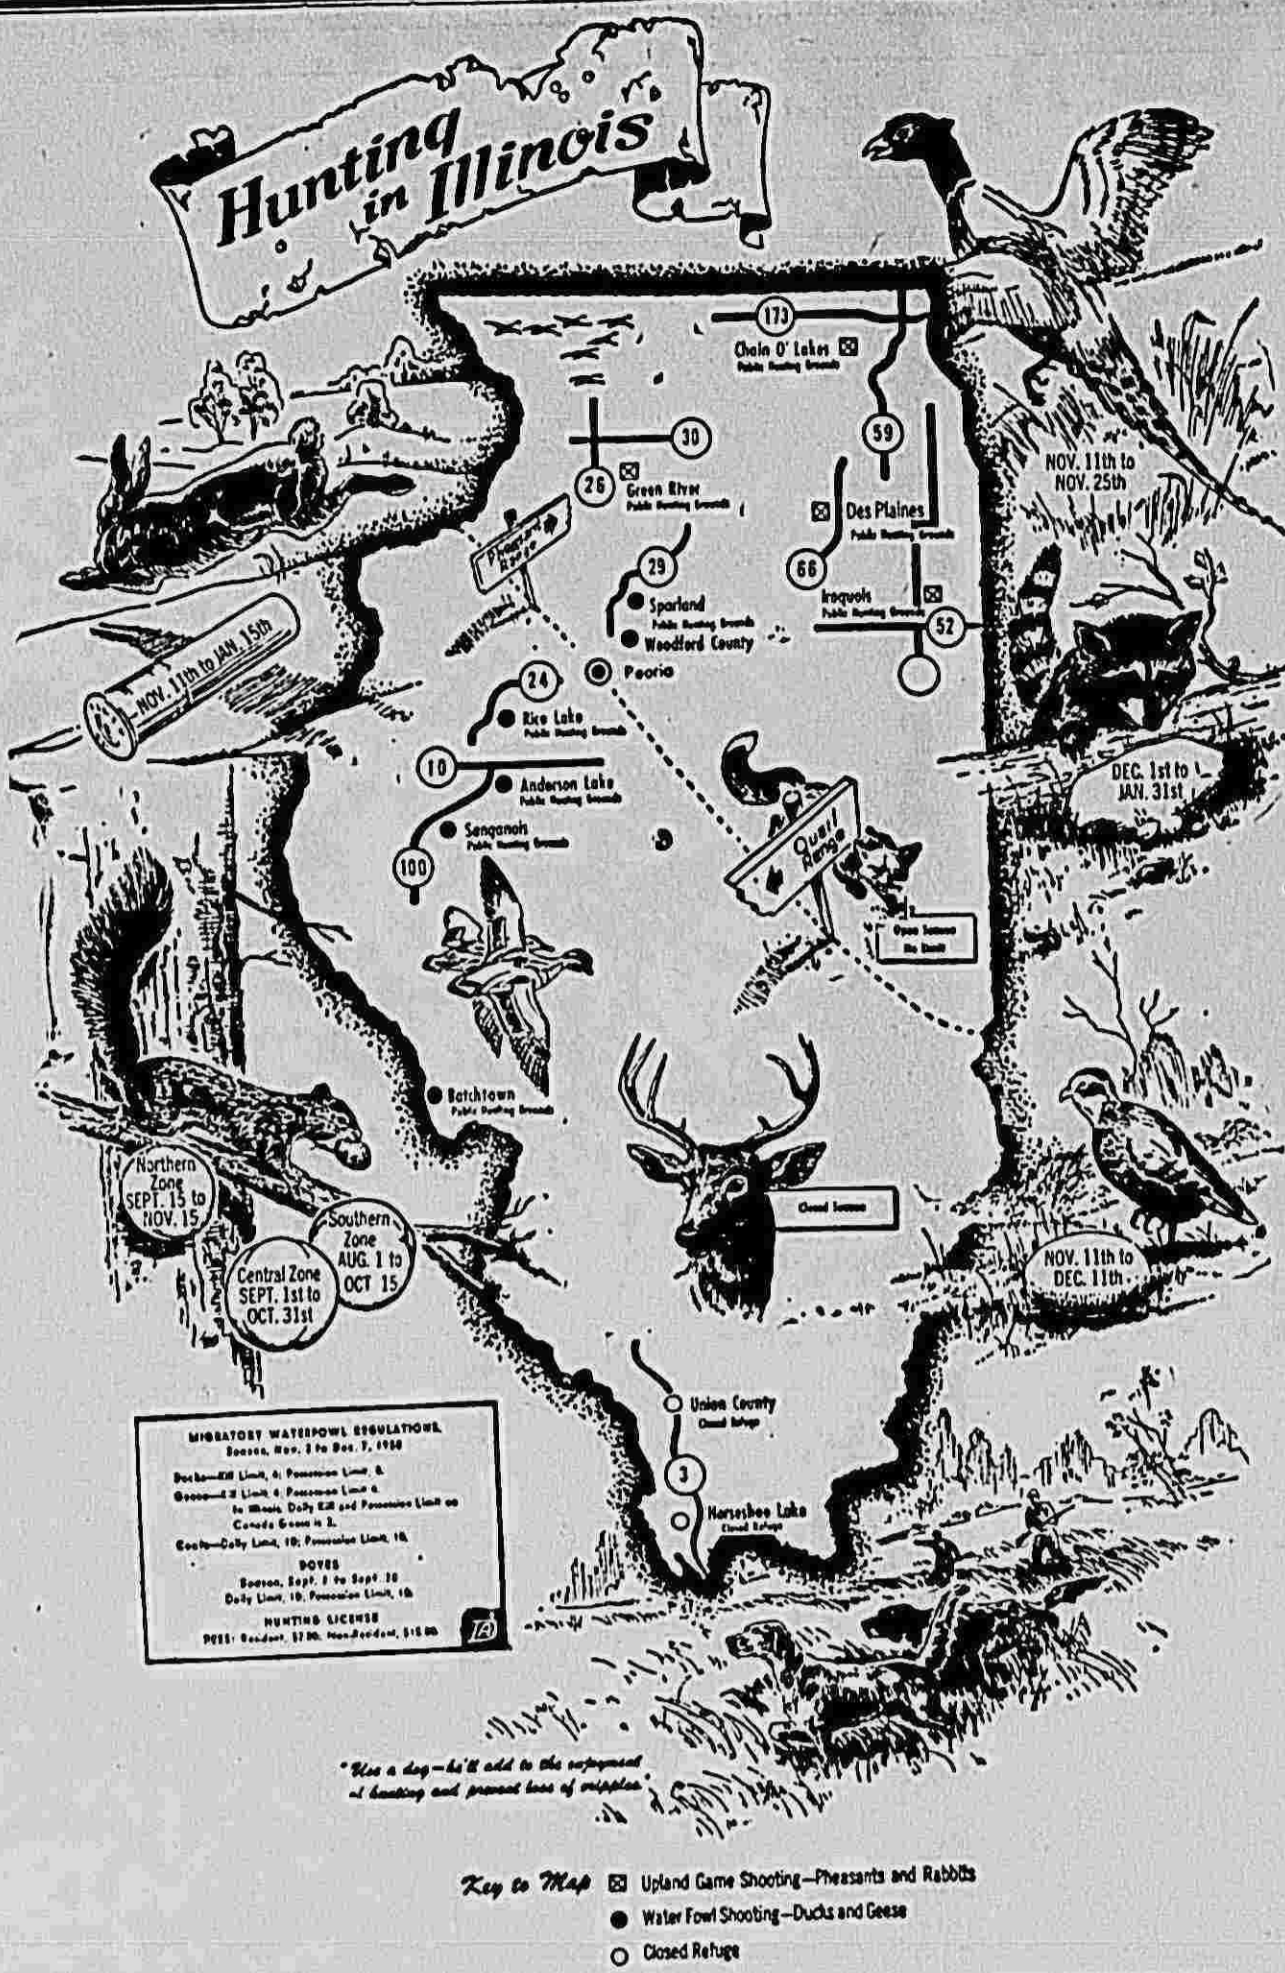

NEW YORK—Alexander Ogston, member of the aviation department of a large petroleum company, believes that kerosene, the old-fashioned coal oil that grandmother used in her wick lamp and still used in many farm stoves, is the fuel of the future airplane.

Ogston said that while the conventional type of airplane engines would be built for at least 10 years, eventually air liners will be jet propelled. He believes kerosene will fulfill the needs of a safe and economic fuel.

"There is little doubt that a fuel of the general characteristics of kerosene comes closer to satisfying the requirements than any other," he says.

He admitted that there have been some "severe fires" following the crash of a jet fighter plane, using kerosene, but that such crashes have been where the aircraft has hit the ground at high speed, causing complete disintegration of the structure.

Ogston said research was now under way to find means to protect kerosene from freezing at extremely low temperatures. That will be necessary if military planes using kerosene are to operate in the arctic regions.

Streptomycin

Streptomycin, costly and scarce until recently, is now coming into wide use in treating diseases of livestock and pets. It is one of the group of antibiotic drugs obtained from molds that grow in the soil. Veterinarians report that it gives excellent results against certain types of kidney infection in dogs and against swine erysipelas in turkeys. It also is being used in combination with other drugs in treating infections of cattle, including bovine mastitis.

Pizza Pie

Mozzarella, a soft rennet cheese made from cow's milk, is the favorite type used to sprinkle over pizza pie.

Belmont Stakes

The Belmont Stakes, the third horse race which makes up the Triple Crown, is several years older than the Kentucky Derby or the Preakness.

Withstands Washings

Cotton's excellent resistance to alkalies and its greater strength when wet are the secret of its ability to withstand repeated washings.

White House Reinforced With Steel Skeleton

WASHINGTON—One day during the Christmas holidays, 1947, the 210-pound butler at the White House walked across the second floor study and produced an "over the waves" sensation and tinkling of the chandelier in the Blue room directly below.

That was the first indication that old age was creeping up on the historic structure and it was time to call in the experts.

A problem presented itself. To build a strong modern structure within the walls of the old which was first occupied by John and Abigail Adams in 1800. There were proposals to tear down the entire building and put up a brand new, more modern home for the president.

But the people of the country would not stand for this and the decision was made to spend 5.4 million dollars on rebuilding within the old shell.

Delicate Operation

The work of tearing down the interior is finally finished and the job of rebuilding has begun. The reconstruction job should be finished sometime in October 1951.

Preserving the outer wall of the White House has been a delicate operation. To keep the stone outer wall and the roof it has been necessary to plan a strong steel frame, with new inner walls and floors. Workmen dug 25 feet below the surface to find a solid gravel footing and then built 120 concrete piers to support the outer wall.

Steel H columns resting on separate footings will support the floor beams and the base of the roof trusses. Heavy anchor bars will tie the steel columns to the stone wall. When this job is done the president's butler, no matter how heavy he is, will be unable to make the chandeliers tinkle merely by walking across the floor above.

New Features Added

Although there will be no changes made in the historical rooms, and they will have the same locations and appearances as before, the White House will not be put back together exactly as it was. The building will have three new features—a two level basement, a grand stairway and a modernized third floor.

The two story basement will provide additional space since the height of the White House cannot be changed. There will be offices for a doctor and a dentist, and a room for a barber. The basement also will house a heating system and air conditioning machinery, and will provide needed storage space.

Most striking change will be the new grand stairway—a dignified, winding, open stairway from the second to the first floor. The old stairway was enclosed. In former days, when cabinet members and their wives marched down the stairs at formal receptions while the red coated marine band played the Blue Danube waltz, they would not be seen except at the bottom two steps.

The new third floor was an attic until 1927. Now this floor will have eight guest rooms with baths, all decorated in the same style as the second floor bedrooms.

Pilgrim's Progress Heads List of Most Boring Books

NEW YORK—The Columbia University Press held a poll to determine the 10 books readers considered the most boring and came up with some surprising answers.

Nearly all of the first ten were required reading in high school. Some still are. John Bunyan's "Pilgrim's Progress" took the doubtful honor of first place. These round out the first 10 in the unpopularity contest:

"Melville's 'Moby Dick,' Milton's 'Paradise Lost,' Spencer's 'Faerie Queene,' Boswell's 'Life of Samuel Johnson,' Richardson's 'Pamela,' Eliot's 'Silas Marner,' Scott's 'Ivanhoe,' Cervantes' 'Don Quixote' and Goethe's 'Faust.'"

Shakespeare led the field with 17 of his 37 plays gaining mention at least once. However, only one, "As You Like It," ranked as high as 41st place.

The balloting cited works ranging from the Old Testament to Dr. Alfred C. Kinsey's "Sexual Behavior in the Human Male" as at once classic and tedious.

Russians Charge Americans Preparing Bacterial War

LONDON—The Soviet Union, just recovering from the famous potato bug scare, has charged that "American militarists are actively preparing bacterial war."

The United States was accused early this year of dropping potato bugs on East Germany in an effort to destroy the potato crop.

Now the Moscow radio charges: "At the beginning of 1946 eighteen Japanese specialists were sent to the United States—bacteriologists who handed over to their new masters all their material on the production of the bacterial weapon."

The broadcast said recent laboratories in Maryland and Utah were working on the weapon.

Beauty Note

According to the records of the Toni company, 95 per cent of the women in the U.S. use a prepared shampoo product. Over 97 per cent wash their hair at home.

Grease Fire

A small grease fire can be put out by pouring baking soda on the burning area. Never throw water on a grease fire; the water will cause it to spread.

Hot Oven

When quickbreads crack open on top while baking it is probable that too stiff a batter has been used. Baking in too hot an oven will produce the same results.

SHORT STORY

The Threesome

By Richard Hill Wilkinson

"THAT MAN," Janice thought as she brought her roadster to a halt, "has possibilities. It can't be that he lives here."

He stood just inside the picket fence—six feet tall leanness. Fair hair. Blue eyes. Bespeaking the easy arrogance of youth. He wore a blue cotton shirt and blue denim jeans.

"You're not Janice Burdon?" he said. And then at her expression. "Heavens, you are! Why couldn't Aunt Bertha have warned me?"

"Is Aunt Bertha your aunt, too?" "My real aunt. You only call her auntie because she's a close friend of your mother."

3-Minute Fiction

That makes us not cousins," he added with frank relief.

Janice rescued her suitcase from the rumble seat. "This is not like one of those things you read about," he grinned, taking it from her. He studied her with honest approval. "And I thought my vacation was going to be one of those dull, uninteresting things."

Minutes later Janice faced her Aunt Bertha in the bed chamber over the front parlor.

"Oh, Auntie, why didn't you tell me he was going to be here? I didn't bring a thing. Not a thing, except my shorts, two cotton dresses and a bathing suit."

"Who?" Aunt Bertha asked innocently. "Phil? Land sakes, don't worry about him. He dropped in unexpectedly yesterday and announced he was here for two weeks. He's a dear boy. You'll like him."

The next day Janice accompanied Phil up to the north pasture and watched him prune apple trees. "I thought this was your vacation," she said after awhile.

"It is," he told her. "I like working on my vacations—out doors." He pointed away over the fields. "Some day I'd like to see all those fields set out to apple trees."

Two days ago she wouldn't have believed him. She was city born and city bred. To her a farm had always symbolized hard work and a poor living, bugs and snakes and hot days in the sun, long lonely evenings. Even the thought of a farm had made her shudder.

She wondered about Phil. He claimed to be a law firm member on vacation. It occurred to her that for a lawyer he was mighty skillful handling pruning clippers. And his knowledge of farming was profound.

THE SECOND DAY of their vacation they knocked off early and went for a swim. The third day they played tennis. The fourth Aunt Bertha packed them a lunch and they drove to Mount Carter, climbed to its summit and watched a glorious sunset while nibbling delicious sandwiches.

On the second Saturday following her arrival she was with Phil. They had climbed Mount Carter again, had sat for long, silent moments watching the afterglow of a blood-red sunset.

Unexpectedly, Phil said: "Well it's gone. And our vacation has gone. Tonight winds up the two weeks."

"There's always an end to nice things," she told him evasively.

"There doesn't have to be. Ever. Listen," he went on eagerly. "I gave you the wrong impression about myself. I'm not a successful lawyer. I never should have tried to be a lawyer. Thank heavens I realized the mistake before it was too late."

"You mean you're not leaving? You're staying here?"

He nodded. "I'm going to try and raise apples. Auntie and I are going to be partners. This fall I'll sell what we have and next spring set out new trees. He picked up her hand. "Honey, let's make it a threesome. I know it's a lot to ask," he added wistfully. "A city girl like you. It'd be dull. But eventually—"

"I could chip in my roadster," Janice cried excitedly. "It's all I have, but it ought to bring $500. How many apple trees can you buy with $500, darling?"

"Enough," said Phil, reading her eyes, "to keep from being lonesome—I guess."

Attic Vent Openings

The total area of attic vent openings should be approximately one-half square inch per square foot of attic floor area when the roof pitch is greater than a three-inch rise in a 12-inch run, and double that when the pitch is flatter.

Dentists in U. S.

The American Dental association reports an average of one dentist for each 1,727 residents in the United States in mid-1949. The total number of dentists, 88,904, is a gain of approximately 5,600 dentists over the total two years ago.

NEW THEORY

Eye Window For Heart

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal.—A new scientific technique, which is based on the theory that "the eye is the window to the heart," can simplify early detection or diagnosis by physicians of a tendency toward development of heart disease.

This technique, known as "flicker photometry," has proven to be more than 98 percent accurate in confirming known cases of hypertensive and coronary heart trouble. In the hands of doctors, it is expected to help them save many lives of potential heart-attack victims, who heretofore had little way of knowing they were developing the disease until often too late for preventative treatment.

These findings, together with facts about the new heart-blood vessel measuring instrument called the "flicker photometer," were illustrated here in a scientific exhibit at the convention of the American Medical Association. The new technique and instrument are the result of ten years research by two Chicago scientists, Drs. Louis R. Krasno and A. C. Ivy of the University of Illinois College of Medicine.

Simple Instruments
The apparently simple instrument is a black box with a tiny "window of light." In reality, it is a complex and accurate electrical device for producing controllable speeds of flickering light. It is capable of revealing, by measuring reactions of the human eye to a countable flicker of light, certain blood vessel conditions of the retina and the brain which appear to precede two important forms of heart disease.

Two easily administered tests are made. After first recording a patient's reaction to the flicker, a harmless nitroglycerin tablet is administered and a second flicker test taken. The interpretation of the tests simply depends on whether nitroglycerin increases or decreases the patient's ability to see flickering light. Over 500 patients have been studied in this research project at the University of Illinois. Further research is being continued at the University, as well as by several investigators throughout the country.

In addition to its diagnostic application against the nation's No. 1 killer, the Krasno-Ivy "flicker photometer" offers valuable assistance to physicians in determining the effectiveness of treatment in known cases of hypertension and coronary thrombosis.

Verified Importance
While meager news of the machine's existence became known last December, further research and actual use by doctors now has verified the importance of the device for real progress in the battle against heart disease. It is the first instrument able to reveal certain conditions of blood vessels of the retina and the brain, which appear to precede hypertension and/or coronary heart diseases.

It is commonly accepted that diagnosis and treatment of these two diseases can never begin too early, but diagnostic methods in general use today are of value only after the disease is further advanced clinically. The device detects this tendency at sub-clinical level, when the patient does not yet show evidence of elevated blood pressure, abnormal electrocardiogram, or any customary symptoms. It makes possible mass testing of the public, by a simple and inexpensive method.

John D. Rockefeller, Jr.,
Proud He Shined Dad's Shoes

NEW YORK.—What was the relationship between John D. Rockefeller, Jr., and his father, who until his death May 23, 1937, was the world's richest man?

In a rare revelatory mood, the 76-year-old Rockefeller said he always was as proud to shine his father's shoes as to represent him in any of his vast business and philanthropic interests.

Rockefeller, wearing a three-button business suit and old-fashioned high-laced shoes, publicly told for the first time how he gradually took over the Standard Oil empire. He spoke after becoming the third man to be made an honorary member of the chamber of commerce of the state of New York.

Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower and former President Herbert Hoover, the other two honorary members, rose with the crowd at the meeting and roundly applauded the man with the shining memory of his father.

Bombay Woman Gives Birth To Infant Resembling Foal

BOMBAY, India—Thousands of persons tried to storm a house in Bombay recently after a rumor spread that a woman had given birth to a horse there.

Even after the police took possession of the stillborn "infant," which resembled a foal, thousands of men and women besieged the house. Others thronged to the police station.

Newsmen who saw the infant said it was eight inches long with a hoof at the end of a limb, a rudimentary tail and an unmistakable equine head.

Authorities searched the area of the tenement house for the unidentified "mother" but no trace of her was found.

Livestock Shipments

Approximately one billion head of livestock have been shipped to the Chicago market since the Union Stock Yard was established 84 years ago.

Thumb Sucking

Thumb sucking may cause permanent damage to a child's teeth and jaws, Dr. George W. Teuscher of the Northwestern university dental school told the American dental association at its annual session. Dr. Teuscher took issue with the idea that if the habit is stopped before the permanent teeth grow in, they will not be affected. He urged that parents be warned that thumb sucking can cause an abnormal position for both permanent and first or primary teeth.

Platinum Sources

South Africa, Colombia and Alaska were substantial suppliers during the past year, while Canada continued to be the leading source of the platinum metals.
